consequent growth of manufacturing industries. He never held civil or political office; but there were no matters affecting the welfare of the community which did not awaken his lively interest, and he was foremost in all measures of public improvement. The impress of his mind and hand was to be seen on all the material interests of the town. But his best work was in those things which concern the higher well-being of every community — the school, the home, the church. He was a central figure in all the best activities of Windsor Locks for thirty years; and his life, taken in all its bearings, was by far the most influential that Windsor Locks has ever known. He had a remarkably fine presence and winning address, with a commanding form, slightly bowed in his later years by rheumatic suffering. He was of quick and clear apprehension, systematic in business, hopeful and earnest in whatever he undertook, responding freely and gladly to calls for help, whether in money or personal service. chozen to make the town rate and to make assessments on those persons that don't give in a list of their estates are Joseph Harrison, Nathaniel Ward, Seth Tompkins, Zopher Beach, and Thomas Hayes." Seth Tompkins was the son of Deacon Michael Tompkins, who, before the settlement of Newark, secreted in his house at Milford the regicides Goffe and Whalley. In 1698 Thomas Hayes was "with Joseph Harrison, Jasper Crane, and Matthew Canfield to view whether Azariah Crane may have land for a tan-yard out of the common and in case the men above mentioned agree that he shall have the land, he, the said Azariah Crane shall enjoy it so long as he doth follow the trade of tanning."

In 1702 Sergeant Thomas Hayes and Ensign Eliphalet Johnson are chosen assessors for the south end of the town. It is a reasonable conclusion that Thomas Hayes was an intelligent, respectable and influential member of the community. The date of his death is uncertain. Thomas Hayes witnessed a legal instrument in 1712,—perhaps that Thomas Hayes who died in 1749, aged 56. The elder Thomas was living in 1705, when he took a share of land formerly of his brother-in-law John Dennison. There was a Thomas Hayes at Milford in 1645 who came from Wethersfield. Milford was settled in 1639 by people from Wethersfield and New-Haven. This was that Thomas Hayes who with Major Treat, Elder Buckingham and Lieut. Fowler proposed to the town to build a fulling and saw-mill for the town of Milford. Perhaps this Thomas was the father of Sergeant Thomas. There seems to be some foundation for the tradition that three persons of the name of Hayes came to Connecticut, as among the inhabitants of Norwalk in 1651 were a Nathaniel Haies and Samuel Haies. In 1694, Nathaniel, James and Samuel Hayes. The name of Hayes appears in Rev. J. Pruden's list of scholars. It is probable that his children had only a common school education. Joseph Hayes m. Elizabeth Day. He was living in July, 1777. By his will of that date he gives his sons David and Samuel all his lands and meadows, and to his daughter Martha all his personal estate, and directs that the estate left by his son Joseph be divided equally among the three. The following is from Alden's American Epitaphs, Inscriptions, &c.: "Major Samuel Hayes, descendant from one of the original settlers of Newark, died on the 1st of June, 1811, in the 83d year of his age. He sustained the character of an honest and well-informed man. At an early period he took an active part in the revolutionary struggle, and was a distinguished officer in the militia during the war which secured to his beloved country the blessings of freedom and independence. In 1759 he was commissioned as a deputy surveyor for East Jersey, and, until disabled by paralysis, for half a century he traversed more or less, Bergen, Essex and Morris, with his compass and chain. In 1766 he was the master of a vessel on a voyage to Nova Scotia, and subsequently sailed for other ports. He was one of three commissioners for forfeited estates during the revolution, and in the faithful discharge of his duty incurred the displeasure of the royalists. In July, 1780, the refugees surprised and took him from his house at night and lodged him in the Sugar House in New-York, and detained him some months, together with his fellow commissioners," all atrocious rebels. He served the county and town in various offices until 73 years of age; a self-made man, stern, decided and energetic, His wife died June, 1803, aged 71. Thomas Hayes of 1645 possibly was Sergeant Thomas Hayes, but it is doubtful, indeed improbable.

THE HAYES FAMILY OF WINDSOR AND GRANBY, CT.

ANCESTORS OF HOMER GILLETT

Communicated by the Rev. CHARLES W. HAYES, A.M., of Westfield, N. Y.

GEORGE HAYES, born in Scotland, 1655, went as a young man to Derbyshire, Eng., where, it is said, he had an uncle, with whom he lived for a time; thence to London, and there, hearing of the new "land of promise in the Western World," embarked for New England, and is first known at Windsor, Ct., 1682.*

Two years earlier, 1680, came John Hayes from Scotland to Dover, N. H., to become the founder of another wide-spread New England family, many of whom still cling around their old homes of Dover, Berwick and North Yarmouth.† The Dover and Windsor Hayeses are certainly of a common Scottish stock; but the degree of relationship between their founders has not yet been traced.

George Hayes married first, Sarah —— (surname illegible in Windsor records), who died at Windsor, March 27, 1683, leaving one child, George, born March 26, died April 3, 1683. He married second, Windsor, August 29, 1683, Abigail Dibble (as now written, but on early records and gravestones, Dibol), daughter of Samuel (fourth son of Thomas of Simsbury, son probably of Robert of Dorchester, 1634), born Windsor, January 19, 1666. The births of three sons and four daughters of this marriage are recorded at Windsor, the last in June, 1697; and in 1698 he is found at Simsbury, in that part now the town of Granby, and in the little hamlet of "Salmon Brook," so called from a little stream, famous in old time for salmon, crossing its one street. A deed of December 30, 1698, from Thomas Griffin to "George Haize formerly of Windsor," consideration £28, is recorded at Simsbury. His name appears in the "Minister's Rate," 1700, "George Hayes, £00–8–11;" in "Wood Rate," Jan. 31, 1700–1, "George Hayz, £00–1–5;" in "Centry Rate," 1701, "Georg Hayse £00–7–6, being 3½d. on y^e^ pound;" in list of freemen same year, "George Hayse;" and in the "Lyst of Simsbury lands taken by y^e^ Sizers," "Georg Haiz Mead 4 ac. 1 r. 8 s. upland £01–16–0." By deed of March 6, 1708, John Matson conveys to "Georg hayse of y^e^ town of Simsbury Husbandman," land "lying between the low^r^ meadow lotts and the uper Meadow Lotts upon a little brook by reason of the windingness of said brooke is called Crooked brooke —being ten acres more or less." Jan. 2, 1723, the town granted to "y^e^ severall persons hereafter named the quantaties of land hereafter express^d^:" to "George Hays Sener 138 acres;" "Daniel Hays 120;" "George Hays Juner 99;" "William Hays 75;" "Samuel Hays 60." (To complete the list of variations in the orthography of the name, it is spelled "Haze" in the before-mentioned deed of 1698, and "Hais" in a deed of 1713 to Daniel, the eldest son.)

George Hayes died at Simsbury, Sept. 2, 1725. By will dated April 30, proved Oct. 5, 1725, he bequeaths to his wife Abigail during her widowhood, his "dwelling house, barn, orchard, home lot and pasture," with household goods as far as needful, and one cow; to the four elder sons,

* Ezekiel Hayes, of New Haven, great-grandson of George.

† Savage, Gen. Dict. ii. 437. Thomas Hayes, of Milford, Ct., 1645 (perhaps founder of the New Jersey family, see REG. xxvii. 79), and Nathaniel, of Norwalk, 1652, have no apparent connection with the Dover and Windsor families.

"Daniell, George, William and Samuell," two-thirds of his residuary estate, and to his six daughters, "Abigail, Sarah, Mary, Johanna, Thankfull and Doritha," the remaining third, with the addition of £10 to Daniel and £5 to Abigail; and to his youngest son Benjamin, who with Abigail was then living with him, the "Bever Marsh" of ten acres, and his share in "oure Saw Mill at Salmon Brook," the said Benjamin to "dwell and live with me and support me in all my wants and necessities," and "to behave himself towards me as a dutyfull Child ought to do towards a dutyfull parent, during my natural life."* The date of his wife's death, and their burial place, are as yet unknown; the latter is probably in the older cemetery at "Hop Meadow," which dates from 1683.†

In his will he calls himself "yeoman," and "about seventy years of age;" and its expression of entire and humble Christian faith we may hope is his own, and more real than formal.

His five sons and six daughters by his second marriage all survived him, married and left descendants.

i. ABIGAIL, b. Windsor, Aug. 31, 1684; received by her father's will £5 more than the other daughters "by reason of her Lameness;" m. Paul Tompkins; joined in deeds of release to Daniel and George, March 22, 1734.

2. ii. DANIEL, b. W., April 26, 1686.

2. DANIEL[2] HAYES (George[1]), born Windsor, April 26, 1686, was in 1707–8 taken prisoner by the Indians, carried to Canada, and kept in captiv-

* He had already given Benjamin by deed £50 of his portion.

† Simsbury, at first called "Massacoe," was settled as early as 1664; made a town (21st in the colony) 1669–70; first grants at Salmon Brook in 1679. Granby was set off in 1786.

ity at least five years; finally released (by earning his own ransom, for which he was afterwards reimbursed by order of the General Court of Connecticut) and returned to live to a good old age in Salmon Brook village. The romantic story of his sufferings and heroism in his long captivity is given quite fully in Phelps's History of Simsbury, Hartford, 1845, and in "A Long Journey," by the present writer, Portland, Me., 1876. He built in 1720 the house occupied by him and his descendants for four generations (and the oldest in the town when taken down in 1871) on the east side of "Salmon Brook Street," in the lower or southern part of the village. In this house the first Congregational Society (of which he and his wife became members at its organization, c. 1739) met for worship until 1743, when the first meeting-house was built. "He was," says Phelps, "a prominent citizen, often employed in public affairs, and during many years a pillar in the church at Salmon Brook." He became a freeman October, 1717; received grant of 120 acres from the town, January 2, 1723; deed of release from brothers and sisters, March 22, 1734; died at Salmon Brook, Sept. 23, 1756. His grave in the old Salmon Brook Cemetery is still marked by a substantial stone (the oldest in the ground) with a quaint inscription, copied from the stone by me in 1875, as follows:

BARBER, Thomas, first of name in New England, came to Windsor 1635, with the Saltonstall party under Mr. Francis Stiles; was then æ. 21 years. The Court at Hartford, 28 Mch., 1637, "ord. that Mr. Francis Stiles shall teach George Chapple, Thomas Cooper and Thomas Barber, his servants, in the trade of a carpenter, according to his promise, for their service of their term, behind 4 days in a week only to saw and slit their own work." He was made freeman 1645; was a soldier in the Pequot fight (see p. 69, Vol. I.); 1648, dft. in Ct.: Sgt. Barber, for his disorderly conduct striking Lieut. Cook, was adjudged to forfeit his office and pay £5. He rem. to Simsbury, where he contracted to build the first meeting-house.

I am willing to admit that he may have d. at Suffield in 1690, but if he owned these four children, he must have married at the tender age of 12 yrs., for the oldest ch. was b. in 1682! As we already have the record of his father's ch. b. at Windsor and of these b. at Spgfld, it is more probable that this is the record of John, Sen.'s ch. b. at Suffield after his removal there (1681–84), and consequently the younger brothers and sisters of John, Junior, who d. 1690.!]

and Bishopland. The original name of Phelps (Welf) Guelphs was a name assumed in Germany when the family came from the north of Italy. It is claimed that from the same stock with the House of Hanover, of whom Queen Victoria is a representative. The name it is well known, derives her lineage from the "Guelphs" of Germany from the old Welfs, of Lombardy, Padua. The history of the Gulphs you will have no difficulty in tracing. The name was anciently spelled Phyllyppes, says Harper's "Pictoreal History of England," but has always been pronounced "Phelps." Although in the time of Edward IV the superfluous letters were dropped First Phelps in the English form of "Guelphs;" 2nd, that Guelph German word of "Welf;" 3rd, that the Welf Family was princely in rank, the Guelphs being the leaders of the Papal Party in the famous conflict of the Pope with the German Princes. The parties Guelphs and Ghibellories, being like the Tories and Whigs in England. The present Royal House of England (Hanover), was one branch of Queen Victoria's ancestry.

"Our Ancestors, a Gallant Christian Race, Patrons of every Virtue, every Grace."

Beside the old Tewksbury Abbey Church, Gloucestershire, England, founded by the Mexican Princess, Dukes Odo, and Dodo, two noble Saxon brothers, who flourished at the commencement of the eighth century. In the burying ground beneath the Sacred Shadows lie interred some of our ancestors, others sweetly sleep in the cemetery of Dursley, in Gloucestershire. Others are interred in Purleigh, Somersetshire, and Staffordshire.

Near Towbury Hill, in the parish near Tewksbury, there is a large encampment which Leland supposes was the site of the residence of the Mexican Princess, though there is no doubt of its having been a Roman Station. The old Phelps tombstones are on the northwest wall of the churchyard and the Vicarage Wall beneath the Sacred Shadows of Tewksbury Abbey Church.

First Generation in America

William[1] Phelps (William, James, Richard), of Windsor, Conn., born in England; baptized Tewksbury Abbey Church, August 19, 1599. He married in England, first, Elizabeth ——; second, Mary Dover at Polluck, England; she died November 22, 1611. He resided for a time in Tewksbury, where his first child, Richard was born in 1619, and baptized in Tewksbury Abbey Church, December 26, 1619.

Soon after the birth of his first child (and the death of his father) he probably removed to one of the southern counties, either Somerset or Dorsetshire, as after the birth of his first child we find no reference to him in Tewksbury, nor do I find any record of the birth of his five other children. He was the mayor of Tewksbury.

Mr. Phelps, his wife, six children, and brother George, then unmarried, emigrated to New England in the ship Mary and John, of four hundred tons burden, commanded by Captain Squeb, with one hundred and forty passengers. This company had been organized into a church and selected their ministers the day before sailing, as previously stated.

They sailed from Plymouth, England, March 29, 1630, arriving and landing at Nantasket (now Hull), Mass., May 30, 1630. This company settled in Dorchester, Mass., the first settlers and founders of that place. Dorchester claims the honor of being the first town in the Massachusetts Colony to organize a town government. Mr. Phelps took an active position in town matters, and during the first six months was made a freeman. In 1634, he was a representative to the General Court. May 14, 1634, he was one of a committee of four to view the ground at Mount Wollaston for the enlargement of Boston, and drew a plan then and reported at the next General Court. March 4, 1634, Mr. Phelps and Ensign Gibbs were appointed by the General Court to go with a committee of three to arrange the bounds between Boston and Dorchester, and explain what each town wants. May 5, 1635, he was a member of the General Court from Dorchester, held in Newton (now Charlestown). ("N. S. F. P. A.," page 20, No. 1526—served as juryman in the first trial in New England.) He was a member of the first court ever held in Connecticut, 1636.

In the year 1635, Mr. Phelps' wife died. In the fall of 1635, the Rev. Mr. Wareham, with sixty of his church in Dorchester, removed to the settling of Windsor, Conn. Mr. William Phelps and his family, and brother George, accompanied this expedition, though it is probable that Mr. Phelps did not go down to Windsor till the following spring. (See Records in Hartford, Conn., Adjutant General's Office.) William Phelps, q.v., was appointed on committee to prepare for war against the Pequots. He was a member of the first Court that existed in the Colony (New Memorial History of Hatfield, p. 103.) (King Philip's War, p. 113), Oct. 19. 1675, Capt. Wheeler's Co.—"Saphire Boat" 40 guns, Capt. Sir William Phelps (Original Journal, under Capt. Joseph Gardner.)

A beautiful marble tablet placed in his honor in the upper entrance hall of the Library of the New England Historical and Genealogical Society, 9 Ashburton Pl., Boston.

In Gen. Gleanings in Eng., pp. 275-6, I find the following: "Elizabeth Phelps, married Thomas Howard, Viscount, Bindon, 3rd son of Thomas, Duke of York, Wilts, Dec. 14, 1643. Children-8 XIV Henry married Elizabeth Phelps, Wentham Co. Suffolk." This Elizabeth may have been first wife of William Phelps.

He settled first in Dorchester and then in Windsor, Conn., where he married, June 17, 1650, Elizabeth Copley, of England, a descendant of Copley the celebrated artist. She died in Northampton, Mass., Dec. 9, 1712, and her will was proved there. Nathaniel Phelps resided on the Orton place, opposite his father's homestead, which he purchased of his brother, Samuel. About 1656/57, he removed to Northampton and was one of the first settlers there. He was one of the first Deacons of the Northampton Church and occupied the homestead forty-three years. The farm was occupied by his descendants until 1835. It comprised the land which was formerly the site of Miss Margaret Dwight's School, and later the Clarke Institute of J. J. Dudley and which is now "Shady Lawn." The old house stood a few rods north of the present house. On May 6, 1679, he and his sons, Nathaniel, Jr., and William, took the Oath of Allegiance before Major Pyncheon, and May 11, 1681, he was admitted a freeman. PHELPS. (Phyllypes)—the superfluous letters in the name were dropped during the reign of Edward VI. [This revision prepared by Miss Ruth T. Sperry of E. W. Hill, who acknowledges aid received from MS. of A. T. Servin of Lenox, Mass., and MS. prepared by the late Oliver S. Phelps of Portland, Ore.]

The following facts concerning the family in England are gleaned from letters addressed to O. S. Phelps, by Mr. William Phelps Prior, himself a native of Tewkesbury, Gloucestershire, Eng., whence the ancestors of the American Phelpses emigrated. At his request, the church register of Tewkesbury was searched by J. Morgan of T., with the following results:

William, son of James, bp. 4 Aug., 1560.
William, son of William, bp. 19 Aug., 1599.
Mary, daughter of William, bp. 4 Sept., 1587.
Dorothy, daughter of William, bp. 28 Feb., 1595.
James, son of William, bp. 14 July, 1601.
Elizabeth, daughter of William, bp. 9 May, 1603.
[George, b. about 1605.]
Richard, son of William, bp. 26 Dec., 1619.

* This being so exclusively a Simsbury family, we have only given the 2d gen. of the two eld. sons who were b. in Windsor. The Humphrey Family Geneal. contains much Pettibone matter.

Some of the earliest registers were absolutely mouldy, written in almost illegible old English, with here and there part of a page wanting. A leaf is lost containing records of the yr. 1582 and a part of 1583; the year 1591 is so defaced by damp as not to be legible. It follows, that even at the date of the first records, the Phelpses were numerous at T., and that many may have been baptized elsewhere. The first P. name is that of James, b. prob. abt. 1520. In the parish register of T. during Lent, 1590, occurs this entry; "I graunted a license to William Phelps, being then extremelye sicke, to eat fleshe, which license to endure no longer tyme than during his sickness. Rr: Curteis, curate of Tewkxburie."— Bennett's Hist. Tewksbury, p. 184.

The first-named William in the above record of baptisms, and to whom the Lenten license was granted in 1590, was Mayor, or rather Bailiff of T. in 1607, and prob. the father of the emigrant Phelps bro's. Edward Phelps, Bailiff of T. 1629, appears to have been the eldest son of William. Another Edward Phelps was Bailiff of T. in 1655, 1664, and 1673, at which latter date he had good estates in the neighborhood, including entailed ppy. at Twining and Tewkesbury. John Phelps who, with Andrew Boughton, was clerk of the court which condemned Charles I, in 1649, is said to have been a desc. of William of T. His likeness is in Hallem's Report of the Trial, a print of 1684. He died in exile.*

Mr. William Phelps Prior, to whose correspondence with Mr. O. S. Phelps (commenced in 1860 and since his death continued by his sons) we are indebted for these facts, resided for over 30 yrs. at Vevay, Canton de Vaud, Switzerland; and in St. Martin's church there is a monument, erected in 1882, bearing this inscription: "In Memorium | of him who, being with Andrew Broughton, joint Clerk of the Court | which tried and condemned Charles the First of England, | had such zeal to accept the full responsibility of his act, | that he signed each record with his full name, | John Phelps. He came to Vevay and died, like the associates whose memorials | are about us, an exile in the cause of human freedom." | "This stone is placed at the request of Wm. Walter Phelps of New Jersey, | and Charles A. Phelps of Massachusetts, | Descendants from across the sea." Phelps gravestones are found beside the old abbey church of Tewkesbury, in Porlock, Somersetshire, Staffordshire, and other parts of England.

William and Richard, sons of William on the above baptismal record, together with George, who (though his baptism is not found on the Tewkesbury parish register) is believed to have been their brother, came to Dorchester, New England, in the Mary and John, in 1630. Of Richard, the youngest of the three bro's, we have this record: "Richard Phelps, 17 years old, embarked for the Islands of Barbadoes, 2 May, 1635, in the ship Alexander, Capt. Birch, and Gilbert Grimes, master." And of him we hear no more. William, b. 1599, and George, b. about 1605, became the ancestors of the larger proportion of the American families of Phelps.

DESCENDANTS OF MR. WILLIAM PHELPS, THE EMIGRANT.

William Phelps (s. of William[1]), b. Tewkesbury Co., Gloucester, Eng., 1599, prob. rem. to Somerset or Dorsetshire, Eng., where he m. (1) Elizabeth ——. In 1630 he came to Dorchester, Mass., with Rev. Mr. Warham, of whose church, formed in Plymouth, England, he was an original member. — *O. C. He was from the first a prominent and highly respected citizen at D., his name frequently occurring in the Mass. Rec. October 19, 1630, he applied to be

* The fate from which he fled may be best estimated by the list given in Pres. Stiles's Hist. of the Judges of Charles I (p. 100), wherein occurs the name "I. Phelps" among the names of five persons who, after the Restoration, were sentenced to be "degraded, and when taken, to be drawn from Tower to Tribune with ropes, etc., and imprisoned during life."

REVEREND JOHN WARHAM, 1595-1670, was one of the leaders of the "Mary and John" group, being its pastor from the time they left England until his death. After the death of his associate, the Reverend John Maverick, in 1637, Reverend Warham served alone, going with the advance group into Connecticut, and helping to found the town of Windsor. Later, in 1639, the Reverend Ephraim Huit joined the group.

Reverend John Warham's first wife, Cecelia Hatche, and his son Samuel, came with him in 1630. She died at Dorchester in 1634, and Samuel Warham died in 1647. No record has been found of a marriage or children of Samuel Warham, and apparently there are no descendants bearing the name of Warham.

Rev. Jno. Warham was uncle to Mary Dobere Gillet, wife of Jonathan Gillet.

John Warham's second wife was Jane Newberry, widow of Thomas Newberry, whom he married in 1637. Thomas Newberry left his widow in comfortable circumstances, with Reverend John Warham as one of the overseers of the estate. The marriage followed, and Jane Warham was the mother of four small daughters, the youngest being Hester, born in 1644, only a year before her mother's death. Hester was destined to become famous as the grandmother of Jonathan Edwards, the great preacher. Jane Newberry Warham is said to have died in the home of her daughter Hannah Newberry, in 1645. Reverend Warham married a third time, Mrs. Abigail Branker, widow of John Branker.

In 1842 the Church at Windsor, Conn., erected a stone to the memory of Reverend John Warham, with this inscription:

IN MEMORY OF REV. JOHN WARHAM.

He was installed Pastor of this Church at its organization in Plymouth, England, in 1630. They arrived in this country the 30th of May the same year, and remained at Dorchester, Mass., 5 yrs. when they removed to this town.

Here Mr. Warham continued his pastoral labours to his flock until Apr. 1st, 1670, when he slept in the Lord. He was among the most eminent of New England early Divines.[1]

Children: 1st wife:

1. Samuel, born in England; died in 1647.

2nd wife:

2. Abigail, b. 1638; m. 1658, Thomas Allyn.
3. Hepzibah, 1640-1647.
4. Sarah, 1642-1678; m. 1664, Return Strong, 1640-1726.
5. Hester, b. 1644; m. (1) Rev. Eleazor Mather, m. (2) Rev. Solomon Stoddard.

Rev. Eleazor Mather was born May 13, 1637, and died July 24, 1669. Hester Warham had at least one daughter born to Eleazor Mather, Eunice, who married John Williams, born Dec. 10, 1664. Eunice Mather Williams was killed in the Deerfield Massacre in 1703.

Reverend Solomon Stoddard was born Oct. 4, 1643, and died Feb. 11, 1729. He married Hester Warham Mather, Mar. 8, 1670. SAMUEL ALLEN was born at Braintree, Essex co., about 1588, and is supposed to have come from the west of England with the company of the "Mary and John" to Dorchester, Mass. He settled at Windsor, Conn., where he was first recorded on Jan. 27, 1640, as grantee of a house lot and other allotments of land aggregating about thirty acres. He is said to have been a farmer. He married Ann——, who married second, William Hurlburt; and in 1657 moved with her children to Northampton. Samuel Allen died in 1648 (buried Apr. 28, 1648). His wife died Nov. 13, 1687.

JONATHAN of W. Hartford evidently belonged to Wendsor Gillettes cord to Colket. Lt. Joseph[3] (Joseph[2], Jonathan[1]) is gdf. of this Rev. War Jonathan Gillett the patriot imprisoned in New York City.

been told about him in a little privately printed volume entitled Letters from the Prisons and Prison Ships of the Revolution, by HENRY R. STILES, M.D., issued in 1865, in a limited edition of 80 copies.

He was b. in the West Division of Hartford Township, Feb. 4, 1738; was a farmer; early enl. in the Revol. service, and was prob. the Lieut. G., of Col. Huntington's reg., who, with a number of other Am. officers, captured at the battle of Long Island, sent (Sept. 5, 1776), by flag, for their baggage and cash. In the retreat after that battle Mr. G., with seven men, were, owing to a scarcity of boats, captured by the British before they could embark. He was at first confined in the prison-ship, but through the influence of John Archer (or Hutton, acc. to another acc't), a Masonic bro., was released and had the liberty of the city on parole. He remained a prisoner in N. Y. city for two years, when his health became so broken down that in the fall of 1779 he was permitted to return to his home in W. H., and d. there 9 Dec., 1779, from the effects of his privations and troubles. During his last illness he said to his son Jonathan, Jr., who was by his bedside, "The war may continue many years, and should you enlist, or be called into the U. S. service, you may be taken prisoner and carried to N.Y. If so, I would have you inquire for Mr. John Archer, a man with whom I boarded after I came from the prison-ship, and he will assist you." Singular as it may seem, all these incidents, as suggested by the dying man, did actually occur. The son, after his father's death, enlisted in the service, was captured at Horse-Neck by Col. De Lancy's Light Horse, taken to New York, and imprisoned, as his father had been before him, in the Old Sugar House; notified Mr. Archer of the fact, and was much befriended by him during his imprisonment.

Among "the Seven" to whom Mr. Gillett refers in the following letter, as having been taken with him, were Timothy Watson of East Windsor, and John Waterman; the latter was released from confinement in prison through Masonic influence, and was allowed parole. It is probable, also, that Roger Filer and John Moody, mentioned in the letter, were of Old Windsor.

During his confinement Mr. Gillet addressed a letter to his wife, of which the following is a copy:

"MY FRIENDS, — No doubt my misfortunes have reached your ears. Sad as it is, it is as true as sad. I was made prisoner the 27 day of August past by a people called heshens [Hessians] and by a party called Gagers [Yagers, or Jagers], the most Inhuman of all mortals. I can't give Room to picture them here; but thus much I at first Resolved not to be be taken but by the Impertunity of the Seven taken with me and being sorounded on all sides by numbers I unhappily surrender'd; would to God I never had — then I should never [have] known their numerc full cruelties; they first disearmed me then plundred me of all I had, watch Buckles money and sum Clothing after which they abused me by bruising my flesh with the buts of their [guns. They knocked me down:] I got up and they [kept on] beating me almost all the way to there [camp] where I got shot of them — the next thing was I was allmost starved to death by them. I was keept here 8 days [then] sent on board a ship, where I continued 39 days and by much worse than when on shore after I was set on [at New York] confined a strong guard till the 20th day of November after which I have had my liberty to walk part over the City between sun and sun, notwithstanding there generous allowance of provision I must inevitably have perished with hunger had not sum friends in this [city] Relieved my extreme necessity, but I can't expect they can always do it — What I shall do next I know not, being naked for cloths and void of money and winter present, and provisions very skerce, fresh meat one shilling per pound, Butter three shilling, per pound Cheese two shillings Turnips and potatoes at a shilling half-peck milk fifteen Coppers a quart — bread equally as dear; & the General says he can't find us fuel thro' the winter tho' at present we Recieve sum cole.

I was after put on board siezed violantly with the disentarry — it followed me hard upwards of six weeks — after that a slow fever, but now I am vastly better — I pray these lines might find you and your children in health and should be glad to here from you if possably — My sincere love to you and my children — may God keep and preserve you at all times from sin & sickness and death — May he feed and cloth you but above all prepare you all to appeare before his righteous [bar, that you might each of you] Render your accounts with Joy; my being absent from you I hope don't hinder your being mindful of your soul's welfare; nor my suffering take your thoughts from your duty to God; never murmur nor Repine at the hand of providence what God doth — Remember it is Right — teach your Children the pathe of Virtue, and to walk therein; may they Remember there Creator in the days of there youth, and live to do much good in there day and generation — may you have the presence of God with you to enable and assist you in this important worke — I leve you all, if alive, in the hands of a merciful God who will have mercy on all that seek him, and may you be of that happy number whose God is the Lord, and when you quit this mortal shore may you Reach a far better, where Sorrow and Vexatious troubles never come.

After giving you a small sketch of myself and troubles, I will Endeavor to faintly lead you into the poor situation the soldiers are in, especially those taken at long Island, where I was; in fact, there cases are deplorable, and they are Real objects of pity — they are still confined and in houses where there is no fire — poor mortals, with little or no clothe, perishing with hunger, offering 8 dollars in paper for one in silver to Relieve their distressing hunger; occasioned for want of food their natures are brook and gone, some almost loose their voices and some their hearing — they are crowded into churches and there guarded night and day. I can't paint the horable appearance they make — it is shocking to human nature to behold them. Could I draw the curtain from before you; there expose to your view a lean Jawd mortal; hunger laid his skinney hand and whet to keenest Edge his Stomach cravings, sorounded with tattrd garments, Rotten Raggs close beset with unwelcomed vermin. Could I do this, I say, — possable I might in some (small) manner fix your Idea with what appearance some hundreds of these poor creatures make in houses where once people attempted to Implore God's blessings &c. [He then asks them to obtain, and if possible send him a part of the money due him; gives them a brief statement of the American lines in the battle of Aug. 27th, and says:] We lost two Sergeants and how many since [we] land[ed] cant Rightly say but I believe at least one-third part, but notwithstanding this we are not discouraged yet, &c. — Roger Filer hath lost one of his legs and part of a Thigh, it was his left. John Moody died here a prisoner.

So Now to conclude my little Ragged History will be in a few words. I as you know ever did Impress on your mind to look to God for so still I continue to do the same — think less of me but more of your Creator. Remember (you are born to die and you could not but expect to meet) with troubles. Ware it Gods will I should be glad to see you and the children before I am called to Depart this life, but if I dont I shant allow myself to be uneasy, for a complaining uneasy temper of soul carries punishment along with it. So I exort you to shun that folly.

So in this I wish you well and bid you farewell, and subscribe myself your nearest friend and well-wisher for Ever. JOHN^A. GILLET.

Tell Co. not to forget her dad for he ha[s]nt forget her. | My Sincere Love to you and the children. |

N B. My deuty to father & mother my Love to Brothers and Sisters neighbours and friends, Especially H. Colfen Esq^r, Mr. Collins, Mr. Crosby, &c.

New York, December 2nd, 1776. To ELIZ^A GILLET, at West Hartford.

† Almerin Gillet (incorrectly called Almond by Dr. H. C. GILLETTE, who gives the following anecdote concerning him in his E. W. Sketches,) was a hatter, and sett. in Windsor. He was a staunch Democrat, and his brother-in-law, Shem Stoughton, was a thorough-going Federalist, and in their intercourse they had many a warmly-contested political argument. A son of Shem's was learning the hatter's trade with his uncle Almerin in W., and by him Gillet sent a new hat to his bro.-in-law, with the following rhyme pinned therein:

"Here's your new hat, sir,
Made of skunks and cats, sir!"

As soon as his eye caught these lines, Shem quickly replied:

"Yes, I see that, sir,
Made by a Democrat, sir!"

She fought grasshoppers, crickets, coyotes and rattlesnakes. In Manti in May, 1850, she helped the others kill rattlesnakes all night long, and burned them on great bonfires; some said they killed from 500 to 1500 in that one night.

For ten years she has said that she "never once dared to eat as much bread as she wanted." Yet her husband raised good crops. He gave half of his grain to Brigham Young to help the poor in Utah; and then gave half of what was left to the Bishop of the village. They gave many meals to poor families who had no food in their homes. She fed the Indians by the dozen and fought the lice from them.

In 1892 when her grandson was a boy, she was still saving every tiny piece of bread left on the table, toasting it in the oven, and storing it in flour sacks in the attic. She was going to be prepared for the next famine.

HOLCOMBE

one of the commissioners appointed by the Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1636 to govern the people of Connecticut, assistant, member of the council of the Pequot War in 1637, and member of the council which framed the constitution in 1639; Captain Joseph Wadsworth, who concealed the charter of Connecticut in the famous Charter Oak; and General Nathan Johnson, an officer in the war of 1812, who was one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, quarter-master-general for many years, and state senator.

The family of Holcombe settled for centuries upon the estate of Hull, County Devon, England,—seven descents of which are recorded in the Heralds visitations of 1620—sent several of its members over to America between 1630 and 1695. The first colonist of the name, Thomas Holcombe, was born either in Pembrokeshire, Wales, or in Devonshire, England, in 1601, and, it is believed, was a son of Gilbert and Ann Holcombe. He came to New England, in 1630, in the "Mary & John." He married Elizabeth Ferguson, some authorities state, before he left England, and others say the marriage took place in Dorchester, Massachusetts. She was born in England and was a fellow passenger on the "Mary & John." Thomas Holcomb (or Holcombe) was made freeman at Dorchester, in 1634; sold his lands there in 1635, and soon afterward removed to Windsor. Hé was a prominent man in the settlement. In 1639, he was one of those who represented Windsor and Hartford in the forming of the Constitution of the Colony of Connecticut. He died Sept. 7, 1657, After his death, his widow married, Aug. 5, 1658, James Enho. She died Oct. 7, 1679.

The Arms and Motto given in "American Heraldica," by E. Dev. Vermont, have been preserved especially in this branch of the Holcombe family .
